

What You Always Wanted to Know About Crime Scene Investigation and Interrogation Techniques

Designed for both interested civilians and law enforcement

What is the proper way to secure and preserve the scene? What about the evidence collection? How do you maintain the Chain of custody Through the use of videos and interactive media you will be familiarized with interviewing techniques, which are designed to assist you in identifying verbal and nonverbal clues which would be indicative of an individual who may not be telling the truth. Participants will be exposed in a variety of investigative techniques including the following skills:

- Identification and preservation of the scene
- Evidence identification, marking and preservation
- Photographic documentation of the scene
- Insuring admissibility of evidence through proper chain of custody
- Transporting evidence to the appropriate designated lab
- Factors effecting eyewitness statements, including selective perception and retention
- Verbal and non-verbal indicators of potential deception
- Components of the communications continuum
- Barriers to communication and how to overcome those barriers
- Nine steps of effective interviewing
- Indicators of potential deception

The instructors for this course are:

Michael Richmond JD, former municipal prosecutor, township attorney, author and New Jersey practicing attorney and John Saccenti, President of CDI, former educator as well as NJ Department of Criminal Of Justice law enforcement course developer. Mr. Saccenti is a nationally known speaker on public health, law enforcement and training development and management and author.

The course will be held on October 7 2017. Class will be held from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. Tuition for this program is $139, which includes all materials. Registration will be through Middlesex County College at 732-906-2556. There is no requirement for prior experience or training to attend this course. Please contact Career Development Institute (CDI) with any additional course content questions that you may have.

Career Development Institute

732-821-6997

www.cditraining.org